

Sinclair's Broadcastings intentions and possible actions to show the docudrama "Stolen Honor" warrants that the FCC serious consideration denial of Sinclair's license renewal. Sinclair Broadcasting uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Its efforts to disguise this type of information propaganda as a news worthy event is shameful, disgraceful, unprofessional, unethical and violates the principles of fair journalism.

Thank you.